

Showcasing research from the Rosenthal group at the Leibniz Institute for Catalysis in Rostock (Germany).

Title: Recent advances in the chemistry of heterometallacycles of group 4 metallocenes

Heterometallacycles of Group 4 metallocenes are rather unusual compounds and serve as model complexes for stoichiometric and catalytic reactions. They can be obtained from readily available metallocene precursors and the corresponding heterosubstrate ligand.

As featured in:

Catalysis
Science & Technology

See Beweries, Haehnel and Rosenthal,
Catal. Sci. Technol., 2013, 3, 18–28.

RSCPublishing

www.rsc.org/catalysis

Registered Charity Number 207890

Review with Backside Cover: T. Beweries, M. Hähnel, U. Rosenthal, Catal. Sci. & Technol. 2013, 3, 18–28; Recent advances in the chemistry of heterometallacycles of group 4 metallocenes.